

Hominid Evolution Links

Becoming Human presents an interactive documentation about human origins, by Donald C.Johanson. (requires Macromedia Flashplayer 5)

PALAEO.NET - A very informative website, which provides an overview of Friedemann Schrenk's projects (Hominid Corridor Research Project, Uraha Foundation,etc.)

See also www.webexpedition.org for information on the expedition in 2001, which was part of the Hominid Corridor Research Project.

The Leakey Foundation - Information about the Leakey family and their projects.

The Talk.Origins Archive deals with the subject of controversies between creationism and evolution theory. Special focus on " hominid species" and " hominid fossils".

CogWeb - Paleoanthropology - A site about the morphology, habitat and evolution of hominids, with focus on Australopithecus and Homo.

The Smithsonian Institution Human Origins Program - "Human Evolution At The Smithsonian Institution" introduces the Human Origins Program with it's excavations in Kenya, India and South-China .

University of Minnesota Duluthi - Prehistoric Cultures - Detailed information about Australopithecus.

Steven Heslip Time-Space Chart of Hominid Fossils gives a very good listing of Hominid fossils from A.ramidus to modern H.sapiens (many pictures).

Human Origins features News about Hominids, plus some Articles.

Current Anthropology - the online magazin of the University of Chicago. Generic anthropology - not exclusively hominid-related topics.

Wenner-Gren Foundation Homepage

Paleoanthropology Society - Online-Journal of the Paleoanthropology Society in cooperation with the University of Pennsylvania.

PBS - Evolution gives a short animated tour through our ancestors' history.